FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

George Lucas Joins Gannon & Scott as VP of Sales & Business Development

CRANSTON, RI (July 17, 2019) – George Lucas has joined Gannon & Scott Inc. as Vice President of Sales and Business Development. The company serves customers across North America, processing, assaying and recovering precious metals from a range of spent material at its facilities in Phoenix, Arizona, and Cranston, Rhode Island.

Based in New England, Lucas previously served four years as North American Sales Agent for 366 International, which specializes in buying, processing, and recycling precious metals from spent catalytic converters and electronic scrap.

Before joining 366, Lucas was Senior Vice President for Rebuilders Automotive Supply, a leading supplier to the automotive remanufacturing industry. He also served as President of Max-Pax, Inc., a premier plastics manufacturer in New England which specializes in thermoformed parts and packaging for the automotive, jewelry and cosmetic industries among others.

Lucas has been a frequent guest speaker at major industry events including national conventions of the Institute of Recycling Industries (ISRI), the Automotive Recycling Association (ARA), Premium Recycled Parts (PRP), and the annual Hollander Summit.

He is a retired U.S. Army Captain and an alumnus of Providence College in Rhode Island.

Integrity, value and timely settlement are hallmarks of Gannon & Scott, which has been advancing precious metals refining and assaying for 100 years. For more information, visit Gannon & Scott (www.gannon-scott.com) or call 800.556.7296.
